

Request for TRIUMF-Computing Accounts

Full Name: _____

Status: Employee Visiting student Visiting researcher
 Coop student Other: _____

non-TRIUMF e-mail address: _____
(optional if requesting a TRIUMF e-mail account)

Requested account-name: _____

Accounts requested

None (UID only) E-mail Linux Cluster (trcomp01, trcomp02, ...)

Windows domain (TRWIN)

Remote-desktop server (may require charge-back for software licenses)

Group-folders: _____
(Approver must be authorised to approve access to group folders)

Appropriate use of Information Technology at TRIUMF

The computing and communication facilities provided by TRIUMF are for the purpose of advancing its missions and objectives in science, technology, medicine, education, training and, commercialisation. Use of the computing facilities must be consistent with TRIUMF's requirements. In addition, internet connectivity is provided to TRIUMF by BCnet (<http://www.bc.net>) all use must conform with the policy of this organisation. Any communication that violates existing Canadian law is not permitted. Users must not interfere with the work of others, or with network equipment. Distributing copyrighted material without the permission of the copyright holder is prohibited. TRIUMF keeps logs of network traffic for the purposes of maintaining and trouble-shooting network services and will provide such logs to authorities if required by law. By using internet technology at TRIUMF, you agree to abide by the acceptable-use policy outlined above.

Signature of requester: _____ Date: _____

Approver – To be completed by the requester's supervisor or collaborator at TRIUMF

TRIUMF supervisor, or collaborator: _____

TRIUMF Group: _____

Division: Accelerator Engineering Science Nuclear Medicine
 Office of the Director

Duration of accounts (non-employee): 1-year (default) 6-months Other: _____

Signature of approver: _____ Date: _____

Submit completed form to the Computing and Network Services mail-box